Nursery Lab Elects New Officers

A meeting of the Torrance Cooperative Nursery Laboratory School was held Monday evening, January 26, at the High School Cafeteria.

New officers of the organization were elected. They are Mrs. Charles Hardinghaus, president; Mrs. Ralph Schmidt, vice-president; Mrs. Wm. Bolton, secretary; and incumbent Mr. Maurice Ransom, treasurer.

Following the election, an educational program was conducted by Mrs. Richard Jordan, director of the Nursery School and instructor of the weekly Parent Education Laboratory class. Mrs. Jordan continued her present series on discipline. Good techniques and poor techniques in child discipline were discussed.

The Parent Education class is open to all parents of pre-school children free of charge. Anyone wishing to enroll may do so merely by attending on Monday evenings in the High School Cafeteria at 7 p.m.

PROPOSED CHURCH—Artist's perspective of the proposed First Lutheran Church of Torrance shows graceful, modern styling of the edifice. A fund campaign to finance the building has reached the half-way mark, according to Rev. Paul Wenske, pastor. The church will be built at the corner of Carson and Flower sts.

Lutheran Church Building Fund Reaches Half Mark

"Today's Dream is Tomorrow's Reality", so aptly stated by Rev. Paul Wenske of the First Lutheran Church of Torrance, is rapidly taking form.

The present campaign for funds to build the first unit which includes the first sanctuary, later to be used as the social hall, and Sunday School building and office wing, has reached the half-way mark on a needed goal of $72,600, he disclosed this week.

The architect's master plan for the future church on the new 3 1/2-acre site at Carson and Flower calls for the main sanctuary which will seat 500 persons, with a chapel for weddings, and a beautiful 100-foot bell tower, Sunday School building with eighteen class rooms, two Christian day school buildings with four class rooms each, a social hall for meetings, social events and religious forum that will seat 500 persons. There will also be a general administration building with offices, library, council room, kitchen, a social room and choir room. The future site will also have a large parking area for off-street parking.

Members and constituents alike are investing in this community and religious asset. The church must grow with the city and the schools, Rev. Wenske concluded.

Patricia Dunmyer Weds L. Hickcox Here February 7

The Chapel of Nativity Catholic Church will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Patricia Ann Dunmyer to Lawrence Ames Hickcox at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 7.

Father Edward Gara will officiate at the formal, double-ring ceremony. The bride will be given in marriage by her father, J. Lester Dunmyer of 1104 Cota ave.

The future benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hickcox of 2417 Torrance blvd.

Following the ceremony the couple will leave on a two-week honeymoon. When they return they will take up residence in Walteria. Both Miss Dunmyer and Hickcox are graduates of Torrance High School.

YWCA Launches Membership Drive

"For good times, for good health, —for good—join the YWCA" will be the slogan for National YWCA Week, April 19-25 according to word received locally from Mollie E. Sullivan of the Public Information Department of the National YWCA.

This week will also serve as the opening for the Centennial Membership Expansion program to be headed by Mrs. Arthur Forrest Anderson, former national president. The theme for the overall centennial celebration will be "For a second century—Fortify Freedom with Faith and Fellowship."

Soon after the new year, the area public relations committee headed by Mrs. ORC Grow will lay the ground work for this program. Members of this committee are: Mesdames, Chris Dorff, O. A. Elliott, William E. Guidinger, George Raymond, Marvin Kent, J. B. Chadwick, and Catherine J. Lockett.

Working with them on membership phases of the program will be the membership committees in each community headed by Mrs. Arnold Ecklund, San Pedro; Mrs. Loraine Harper, Wilmington; and Mrs. Walter Levy, Torrance.

The local membership committee includes: Mesdames, W. O. Clausing, Earl Eckert, William Kuchs, Helene Scott, Leroy Mello, Walter Silence, Parke Montague, William A. Herrmann, and Heinrich Hull.

Local Woman Wins Radio Gift Prizes

Christmas has continued into January for Mrs. Frances Caruso, 20825 Hawthorne ave., who has just received an assortment of merchandise prizes from Stu Wilson, morning disc jockey of the Catalina radio station KBIG. The "loot" was her reward for being home when Wilson telephoned her, and in particular for correctly answering a list of questions he asked her about the contents of announcements on his program.

Wilson conducts the contest between musical numbers and news briefs each weekday on his "Are Ya Listenin'?" show from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, with awards given daily in both the telephone quiz and mail quiz divisions.
